

I DON'T WANNA BE THE ONE

I don't wanna be the one but someone's gotta be the one to tell you you've been FUCKIN' UP!

TURN OFF THE NEWS

Brains are being manipulated
Mushed into their way of thinking
The media stirs up the pot
Lapdogs draw straws and drink in
The headlines are just head lies
Meant to sucker you in
The more triggers, the more viewers
The more profits pour in

It's not fair, balanced or unbiased
It's propaganda
Dividing the nation on every station
Is the media's agenda
It's not fair, balanced or unbiased
It's propaganda
Dividing the nation every publication
Is the media's agenda

Turn off the news
It's all a ruse!

Destroy the media!
Don't let the media destroy you!

HUMAN SPEED BUMP

They put you down
Push you around
It never seems to end
You don't like what's going on
But don't say anything
They make you feel like you don't matter
And you never will
But you still call them friends of yours
Though they've broken your will

You just lie down and take it
You let them all run over you
A human speedbump is all you are to them
They're not your friends

She makes you feel ugly and worthless in every way
Your heart's just an unwelcome mat she steps on every day
You tell her you love her
She laughs right in your face
Tell her she's the only one
Tells you she needs her space

But you just lie down and take it
You let her walk all over you
A human speedbump is all you are to her
She's not your girl
